Annual School Report.

The enumeration of the Truant Officer in April gives the number of children in town, between the ages of five and fifteen, as 76 : Boys, 41 ; girls, 35. The whole number registered is 56 : Boys, 31 ; girls, 25 ; of whom two are more than fifteen years of age.

We know of no person in the district, between the ages of fourteen and twenty-one, who cannot read and write.

We think our schools compare well in discipline and attendance with those in former years. Miss Chase, Miss Sanborn and Miss York have been with us as teachers several terms before the past year. They still continued to be faithful to their duties and their pupils, generally, have made good advancement.

When we visited Miss Carter's school we found it very quiet and orderly, and the recitations were rendered with promptness. The written examination has not been thoroughly examined, but it is very neatly written, and we trust it will give credit to the teacher's instruction. The examination for Miss Chase's school will be sent in in two weeks—too late to report. Mr. Austin commenced his labor at teaching at the North. He seemed to love the work and tried to interest his pupils. We found them studious and orderly, and they could not fail to improve. The schools being small, we thought it better to unite them for the winter term, maintaining only two schools, the Corner and Pound. The Pound school will continue for two weeks and the statistical table cannot be complete for the winter term.

The following is the

ROLL OF ATTENDANCE.

For the year.—Clara E. Currier, Mary N. Currier, Josephine M. Sanborn, William C. Currier, Alice M. Silloway, and George B. Morrill.

For two terms.—Bridget Bellerose, Charles A. Currier, and Charles A. Richardson.

For one term.—Belle Akerley, Rosilda Bellerose, William B. Noyes, Franklin J. Noyes, Edward Munro, Maud Coburn, Lewis D. Coburn, Perley K. Lord, Ethel E. Harris, Frank E. Holmes, and Marion L. Rowell.

Respectfully,

LAURA O. PHILBRICK,

For the Board of Education.
